Chapter 1 by LuxCh3rry

Other animals gathered around the cage, they wanted bloodshed, and they wanted it now.
/Fight!/ /Fight!/ they chanted.

I stole a glance at Marlina, she was readying herself for the fight.

The duel began as the lioness sprinted towards me, jaws wide.

I tried to fight her, i really did,

But when you've loved someone so long, hurting them is just not an option.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

But then again, there's always the instinct to survive. I didn't see why I couldn't use both.

I fluttered up into the air, taking my sword sideways in my mouth to give my wings better stamina. Marlina growled. She and I were thinking the same thing - I couldn't stay up here forever. And why delay the inevitable? I was a simple pigeon footguard. She was a royal elite. My death would mean nothing.

Except to her.

The crowd, as expected, booed. Someone throw an apple at me, hoping to break my balance, but failed. I was steadfast in my love. Marlina would think otherwise. She would have to.

And I would wait as long as I had to for her to think otherwise.
